

We are pleased to announce...

This Basic Skills Competition is designed for Learn to Skate

Participants and Advanced Skaters held on,

March 20th, 2010 from 2:15-8p.m.

The levels that will be competing are the levels that are in the USFS Basic Skills Program. This Competition is designed to give our skaters a chance to expand on their USFS Basic Skills in an exciting and competitive way!

If you are interested in competing and already have a program that you are working on with your private instructor please inform them of your interest. If you have not yet started a program with a private instructor speak to your

Learn to Skate Instructor for details!!
